

HomeWork Seattle

Professional Handyman Service

The process of a rehab or complete renovation is challenging and exciting. We understand how expensive but how crucial it is. It is our priority to maintain the investor's vision and goals with as little overhead as possible. With the use of our research team and the diligence to find the best deals around and the experience of our Technicians, the investor/home owner can greatly benefit. The rehab and renovation of a house is determined on what today's standard of a quality home is. The upgrades of appliances, cabinetry, etc. as well as the cosmetic needs will affect the value.

Rehab/Renovations

We are very pleased and excited to be a part of the ongoing trend of upgrades and remodeling for the property investor as well as the private home owner. We have a variety of services that are in our influence, such as Title and Escrow, Brokers and Realtors. Our specialties and experience are in all phases of remodeling, repairs or renovations. With 15 years of experience, we take a very strong stance on the quality of our work at the lowest possible cost to our clients. HomeWork is a proud company with high standards and the commitment to satisfy our customers with an unwavering guarantee.

Repairs/Remodelling

A message from John Oliver:

Welcome to HomeWork Seattle. HomeWork Seattle is determined and focused on bringing back the good will of helping home owners of every status.

John Oliver

Being honest and holding true to the standards set is essential to our success and provides our clients the peace of mind needed when called to fix a simple leak or taking on a task the magnitude of a complete remodeling project.

The first time buyer to the major investor have one thing in common, they all can count on having HomeWork.

Customer Service is at the core of our philosophy. We aim to exceed your expectations so please give us a call and experience our HomeWork.

Our company's mission is to develop relationships that make a positive difference in our customers' lives. We provide outstanding workmanship and deliver premium quality to our customers.

We meet the needs of our customers vision with shared ideas and maintaining flexible work environment. The principles that have become linked with the companies' workmanship, service and notability, are its employees.

Honesty, integrity and a code of ethics are essential in our field which has led HomeWork to measure success, not only by abundances, but more so, "how" it was achieved.

Our Promise

www.homeworkseattle.com

Phone: 425.941.2687